
MARKETING AREAS AVAILABLE TO ALUMINUM FABRICATORS IN SOUTHERN AND OFFICIAL TERRITORIES COMPARED ON BASIS OF FREIGHT-RATES AND DISTANCES

In competition between fabricators in Decatur, Alabama (Southern Territory) and Newark, New Jersey (Official Territory), the shaded area is a market in which Decatur possesses the "natural" advantage of shorter distance but Newark possesses the "practical" advantage of lower freight rates.

KEY

EQUAL-DISTANCE LINE (APPROXIMATE) BETWEEN DECATUR AND NEWARK

PRESENT EQUAL-RATE LINE (APPROXIMATE) BETWEEN DECATUR AND NEWARK

TERRITORY AFFECTED BY THE INTERIM CLASS RATES PRESCRIBED BY THE INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION IN DOCKET NO. 28300

TENNESSEE VALLEY AUTHORITY

COMMERCE DEPARTMENT

JULY 1945

G-RT-1-272 B13

Kerr, Maps [O-8 Item 237]