BUFFALO HERDS
LONGHORN HERDS

THE OLDEST MOUNTAIN RANGE IN THE UNITED STATES. Complete valleys of huge Granite Boulders, Hills of solid rock. Marvelous places to set up your cameras.

A REFUGE AREA covering approximately 61,000 acres.

TWO OF THE LARGEST HERDS OF BUFFALO AND LONG HORN CATTLE IN THE WORLD. Also there are many Elk, Deer, Antelope, Prairie Dog Villages, Wild Turkey and Small Game Birds. They may be observed in many places in this large sanctuary.

SWIMMING AND BOATING. There is excellent swimming facilities for the advanced or beginner swimmer. Places to change clothing, sand beaches, areas for boating too. The 28 lakes make this a wonderful spot for a day or a month vacation.

THE ROAD UP MOUNT SCOTT, as throughout the Wildlife Refuge, this mountain road is blacktop and open all year. Room for cars to pass and the grades are not too great for compact or larger car. The views from this road on all sides are breathtaking.

LIKE TO FISH? The lakes are marvelous places to wet a line. You may wade in most of them or sit comfortably on the rock banks. Deep water is almost everywhere and bass, channel cat, crappie or perch are waiting to cooperate. You may use your boat on some of the lakes.

FORT SILL, The Artillery and Missile Center of the world. Covering more than 94,000 acres, fine drives inside the post. The Museum is one of the finest in the world. You can spend many pleasant hours at Sill and see probably the finest collection of Artillery and Missiles in the Continental United States.

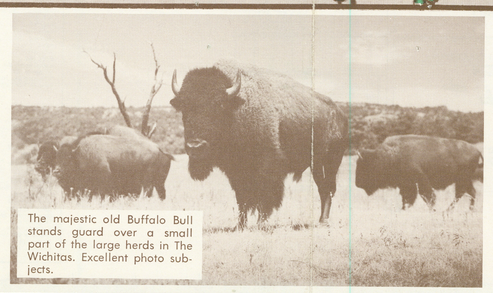

CAMPING AND PICNIC GROUNDS, almost any place you care to go in the Refuge abounds with camping sites, garbage disposal, water and places to do cooking. Families find it an ideal place to relax.

THE HOLY CITY OF THE WICHITAS . . . site of the world-famed Wichita Mountains Easter Sunrise Service. Attendance at this well known observance has been over the hundred thousand mark many times. Audience hill has plenty of room for the thousands who make the annual trek to pay homage to our Savior.

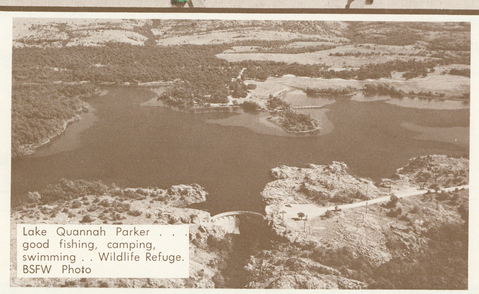

COPYRIGHT 1965, BY C AND J PRINTING CO., LAWTON, OKLA. REPRODUCTION PROHIBITED.

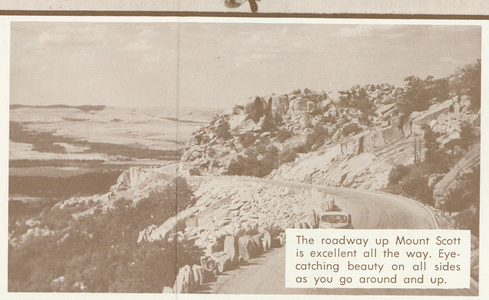

One of the largest herds of long horns in this country may be seen in different parts of the refuge.

The majestic old Buffalo Bull stands guard over a small part of the large herds in The Wichitas. Excellent photo subjects.

The roadway up Mount Scott is excellent all the way. Eye-catching beauty on all sides as you go around and up.

The swimming and diving walkway in Lake Quanah Parker makes for a wonderful family spot.
