

ELEVATION 1/16"=1'-0"

|      |              |            |                                                                                                                                                                |                           |   |
|------|--------------|------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------|---|
|      | PROJECT NO.  | T-259      | POTEAU COMMUNITYCENTERPOTEAU LEFLORE COUNTY, OKLAHOMA                                                                                                  | SHEET NO.                 | 2 |
|      | FILE NO.     |            |                                                                                                                                                                | OF                        | 2 |
|      | DRAWN BY     | CHIEF      | Hudgins, Thompson, Ball and Associates, Inc.ARCHITECTS - ENGINEERS - PLANNERS1411 CLASSEN BLVD. OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA.700 MAYO BLDG. TULSA, OKLAHOMA | THE CARL ALBERTCENTER |   |
|      | TRACED BY    |            |                                                                                                                                                                |                           |   |
| DATE | MAY 19, 1967 | CHECKED BY |                                                                                                                                                                |                           |   |