

Rules of the Road

Rule 1. Vehicles in meeting each other shall keep to the right of the center of the road.

Rule 2. All vehicles overtaking others, shall, in passing, keep to the left of the center of the road and shall not pull over to the right until entirely clear of the vehicle passed.

Rule 3. All vehicles turning to the right into another road shall turn the corner as near the curb as practicable.

Rule 4. All vehicles turning to the left into another road shall pass around the center of the intersecting road before turning.

Rule 5. All vehicles crossing from one side of the street to the other shall do so by turning to the left, so as to go in the same direction as the traffic on each side of the street.

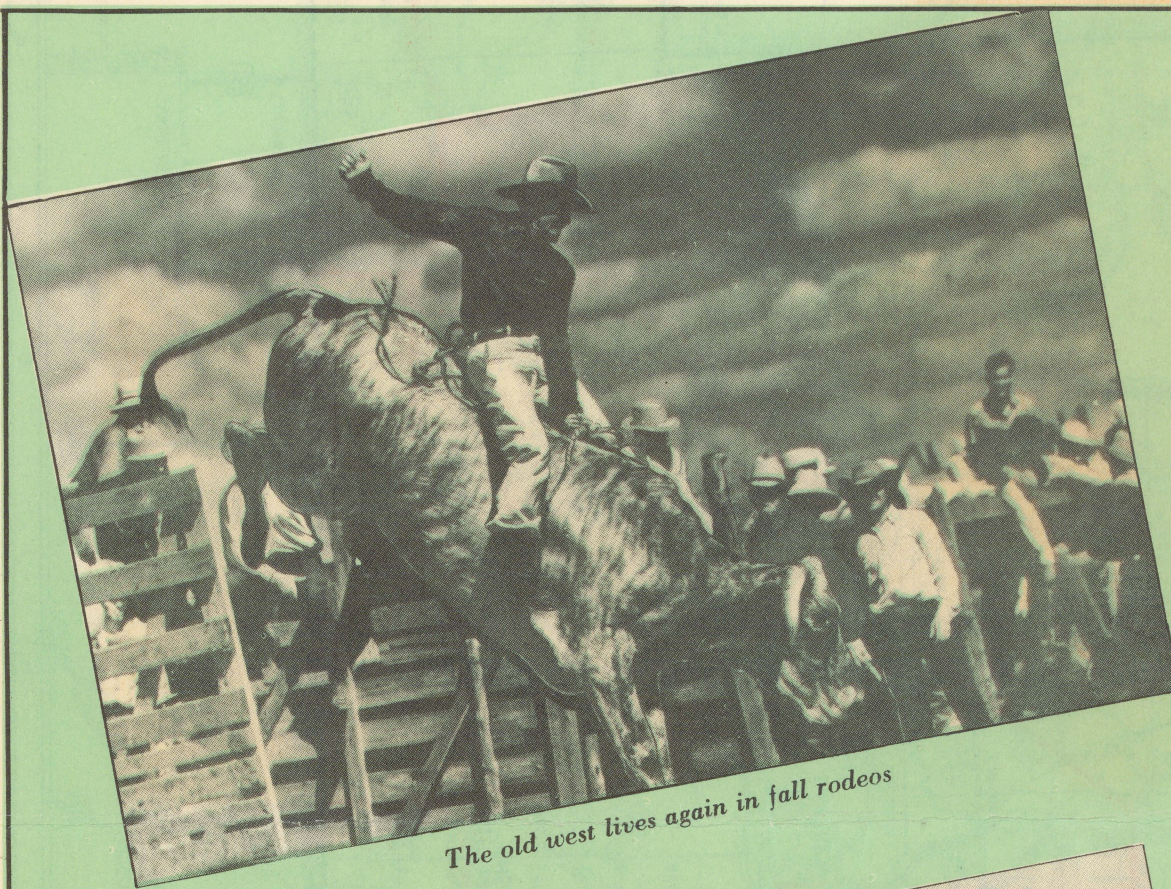

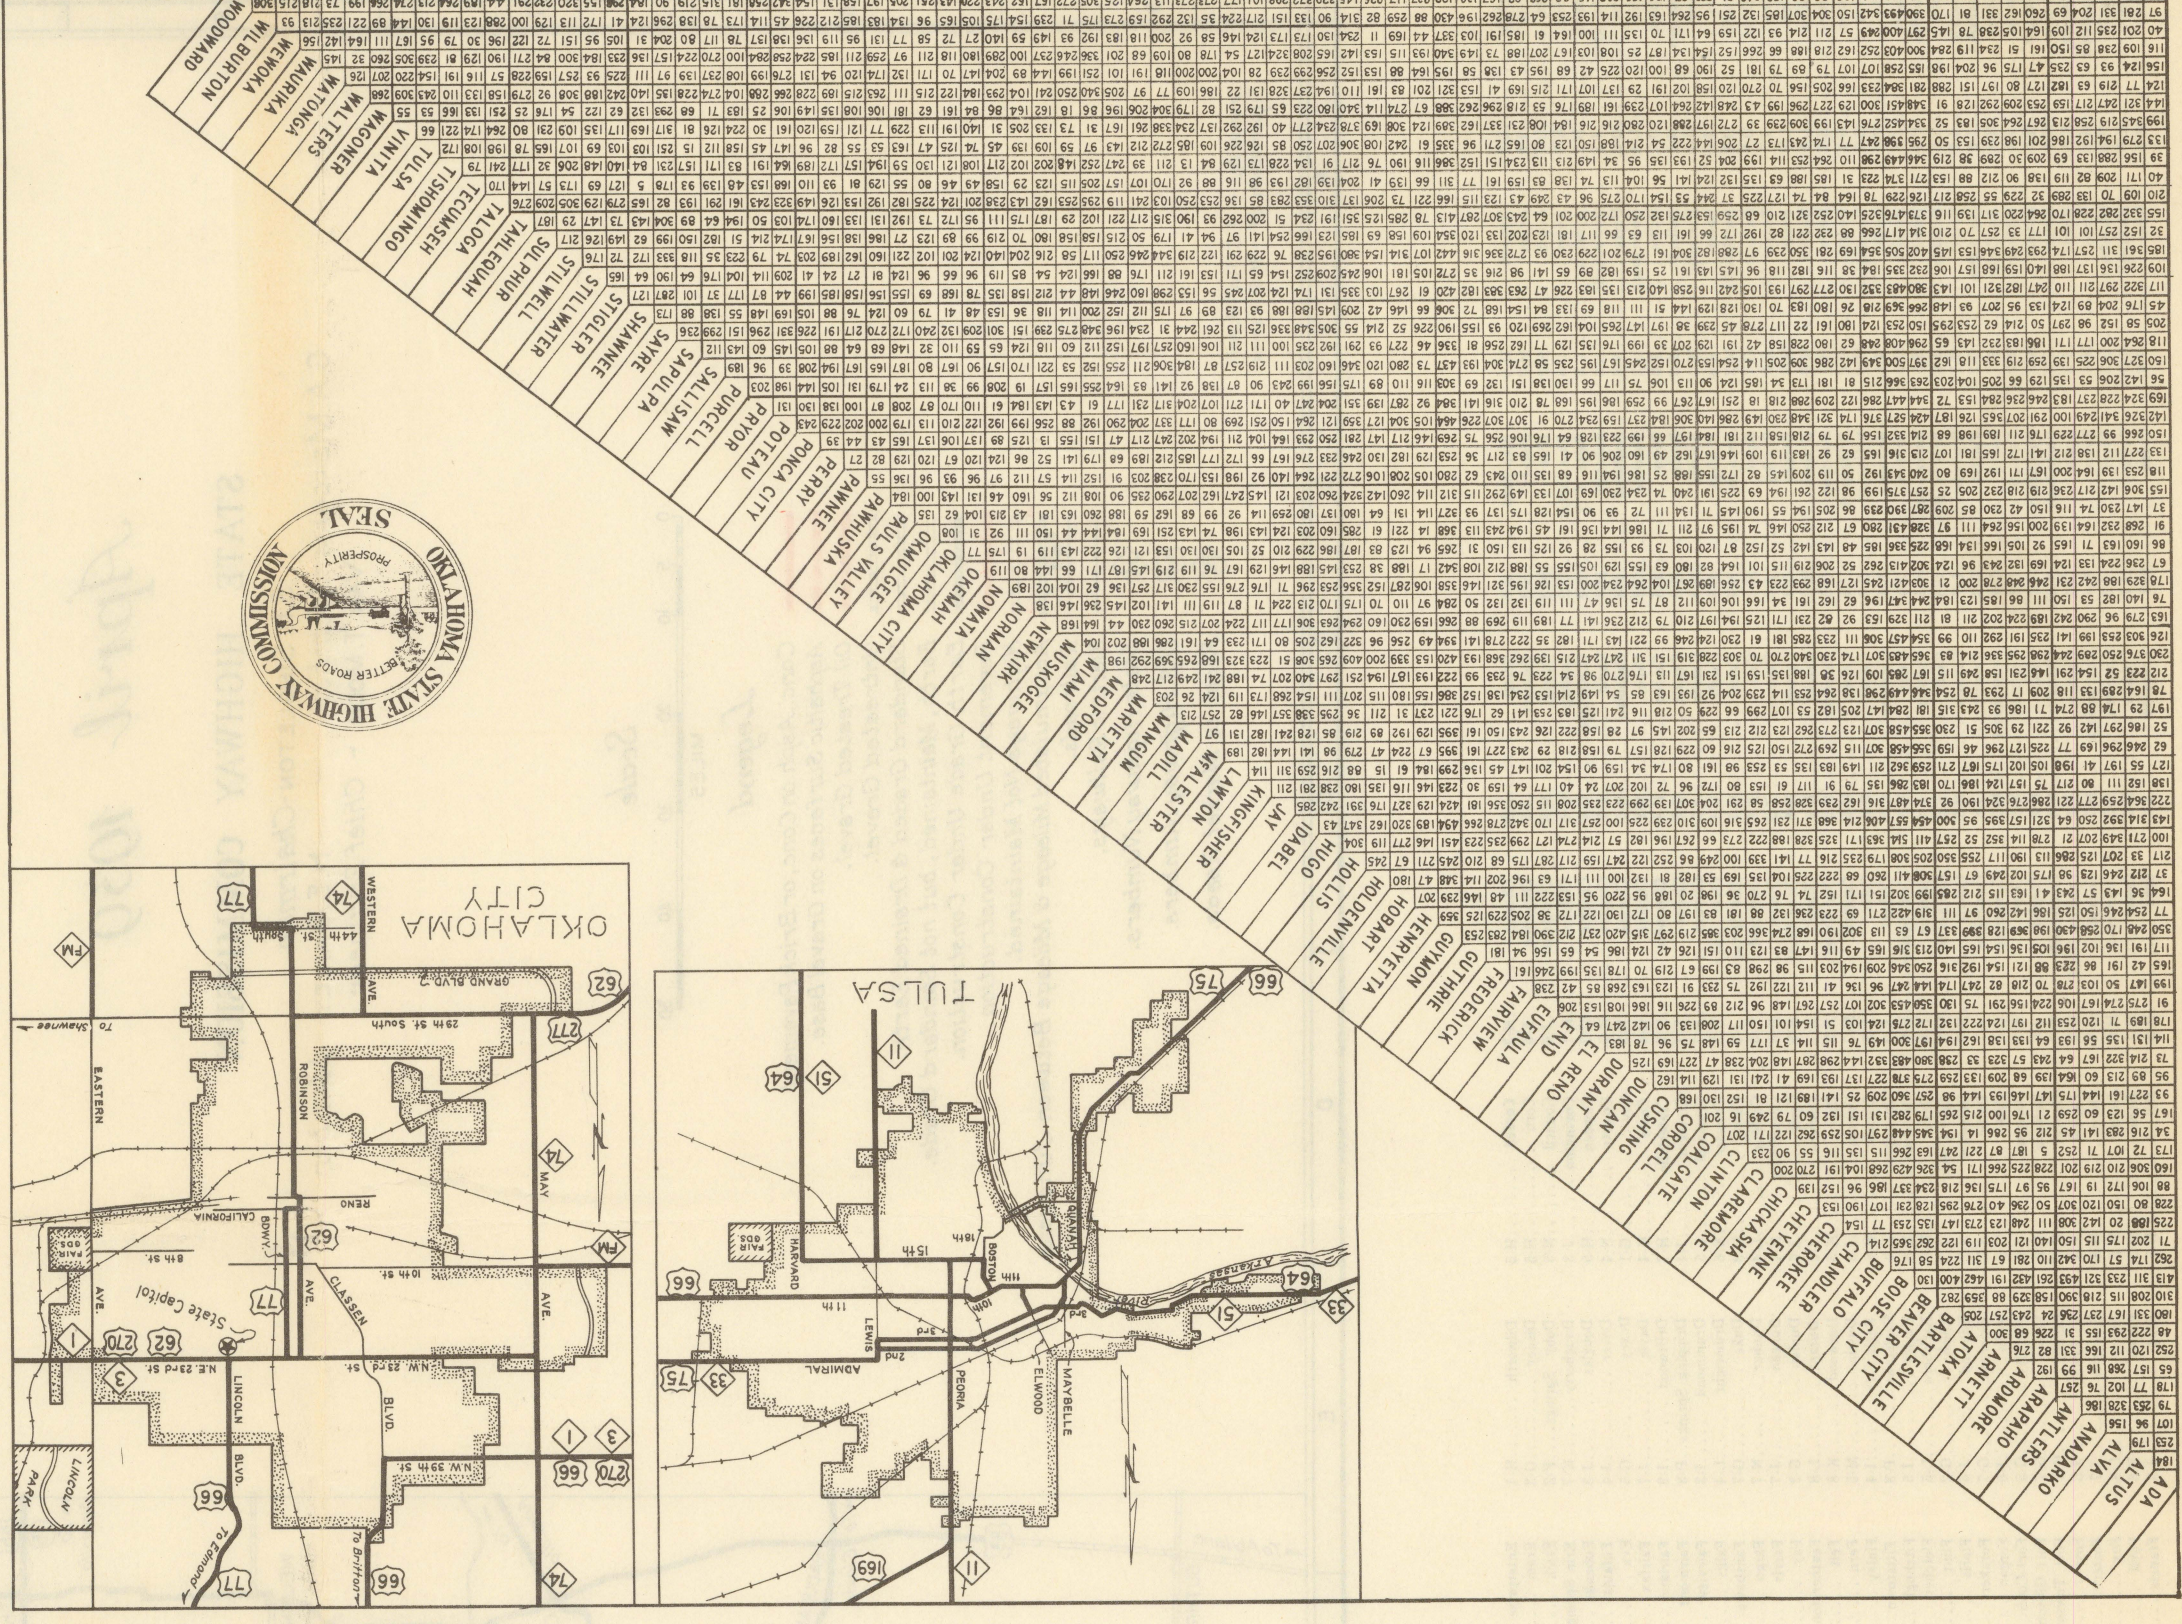

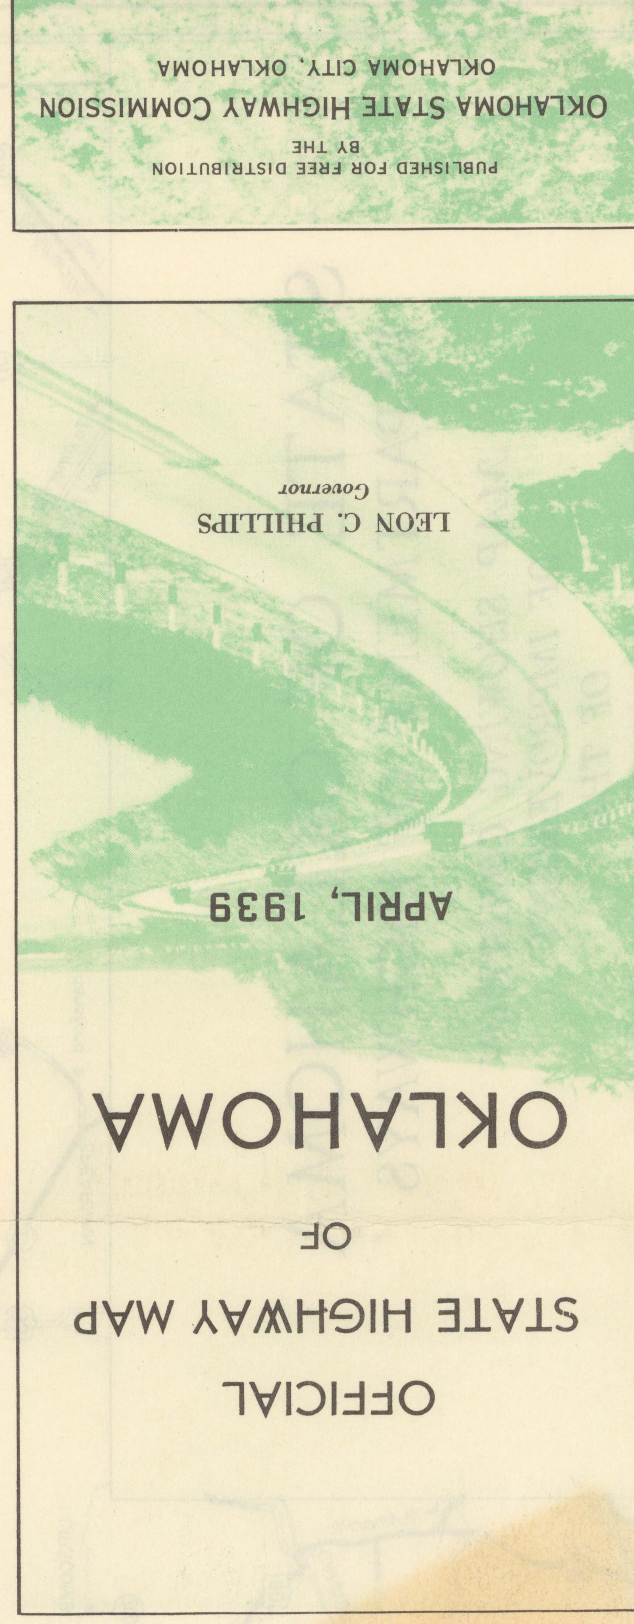

Rule 6. All vehicles before passing other vehicles from the rear shall give notice of approach by a horn or other signal before passing. Provided, that said vehicle shall be required to give the signal only when necessary to avoid an accident.

Rule 7. At intersecting roads or streets, and give half the road.

Rule 8. No person shall drive or operate a motor vehicle upon or over any road or highway of the State which has attached thereto any spotlight.

Rule 9. When a motor vehicle is brought to a stop on a hard-surfaced highway to the left of the center of the road, the person shall drive or operate the vehicle at least three feet.

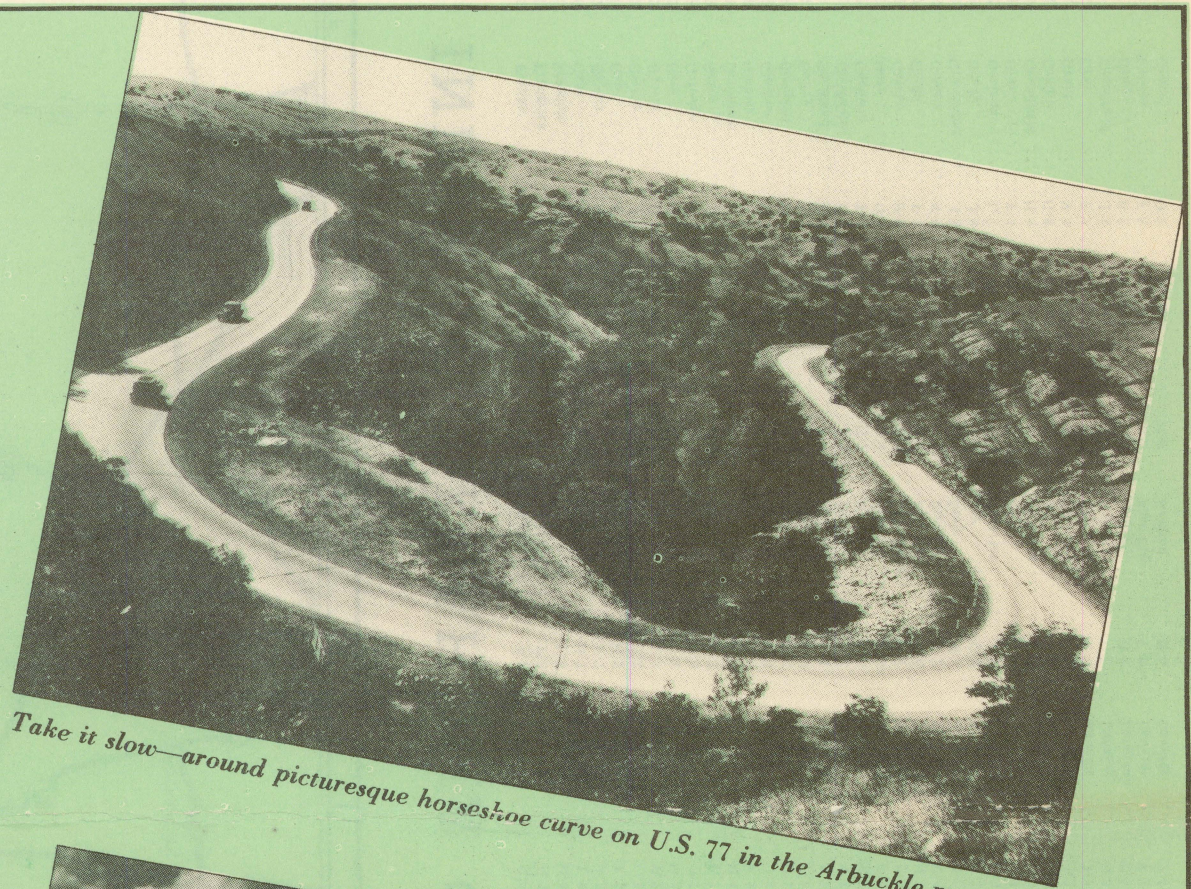

Rule 10. Keep Your Hands on the Wheel and Your Mind on the Road. Drive Carefully and Spare a Life.

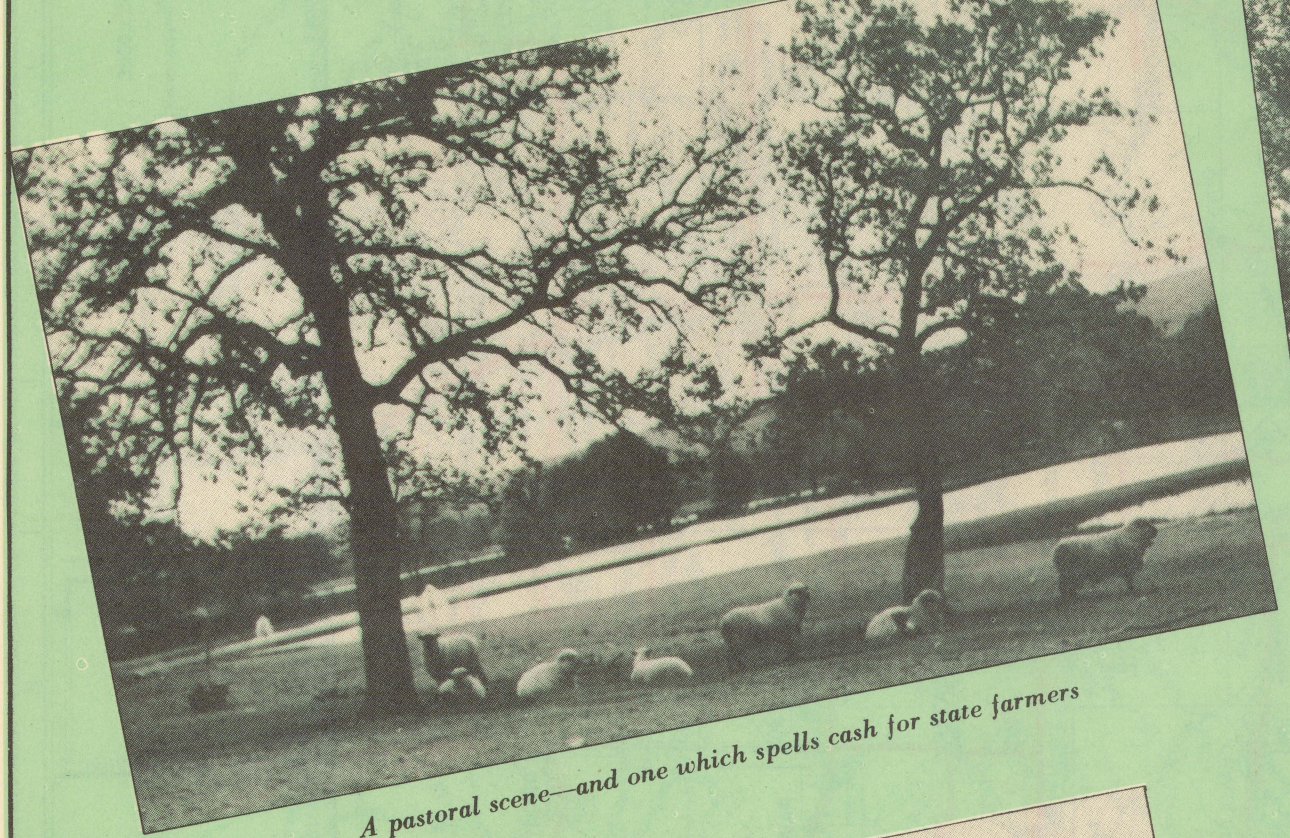

The old west lives again in fall rodeos

Symbolic of Oklahoma's petroleum industry—the Capitol in its unique setting of oil derricks

Take it slow—around picturesque horseshoe curve on U.S. 77 in the Arbuckle mountains

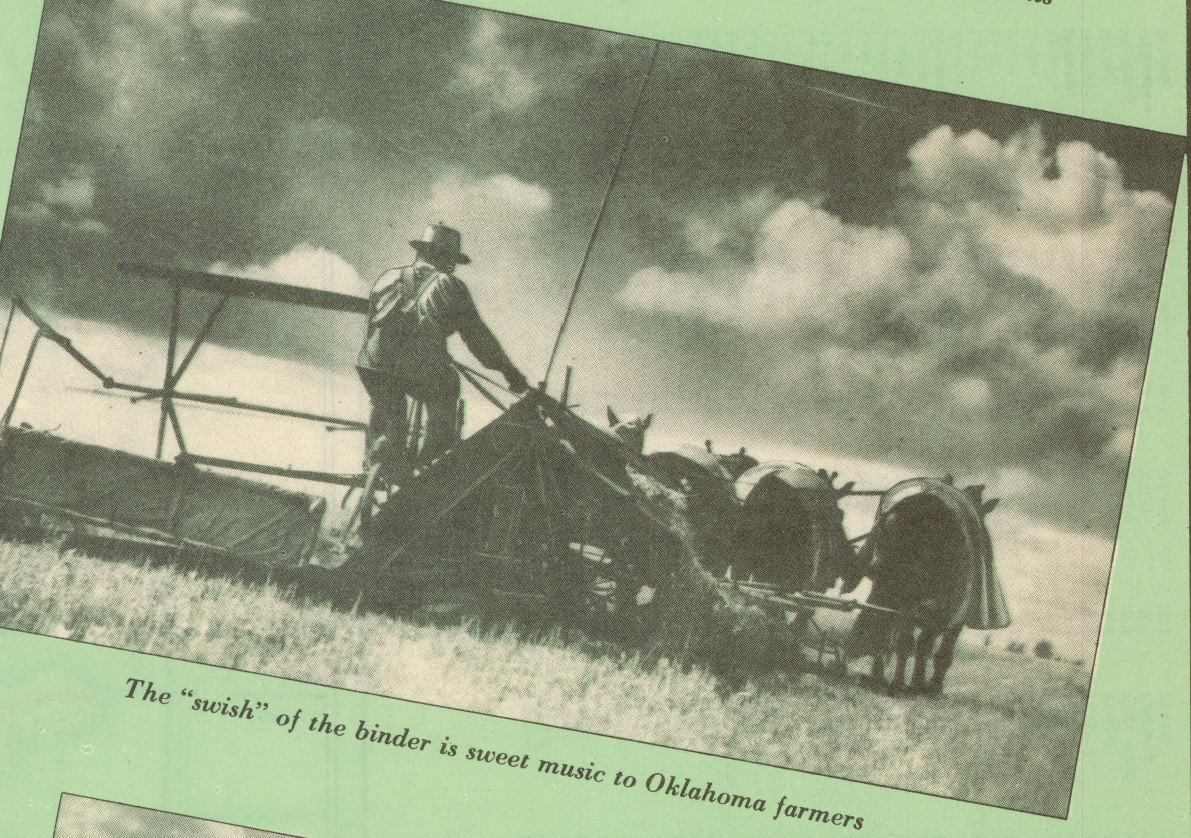

A pastoral scene—and one which spells cash for state farmers

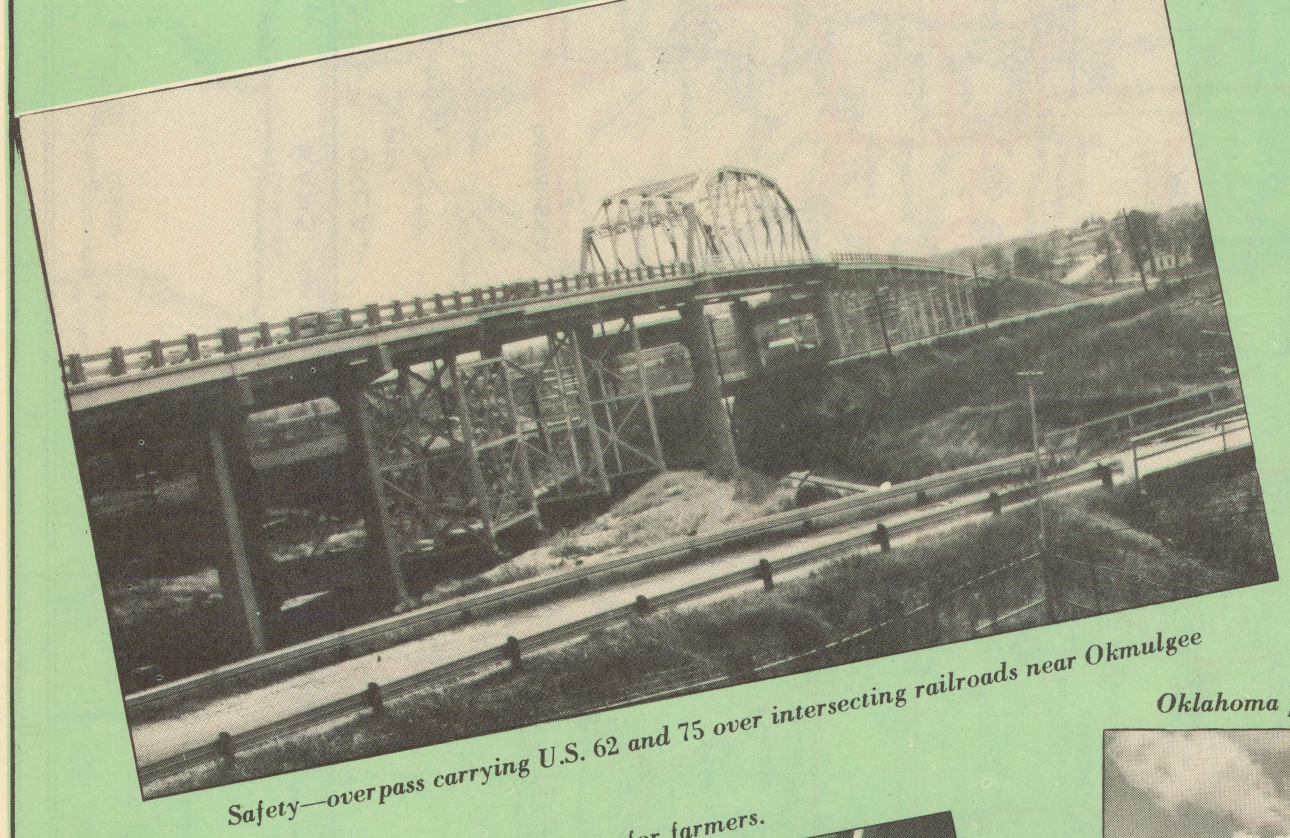

In Platt National Park, near Sulphur

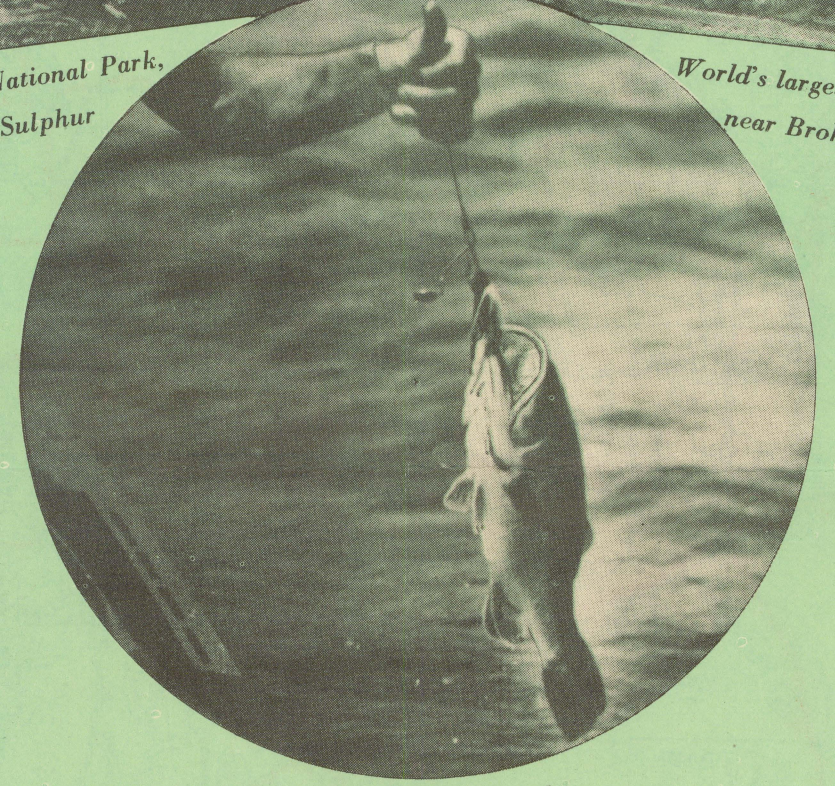

World's largest cypress, near Broken Bow

The "swish" of the binder is sweet music to Oklahoma farmers

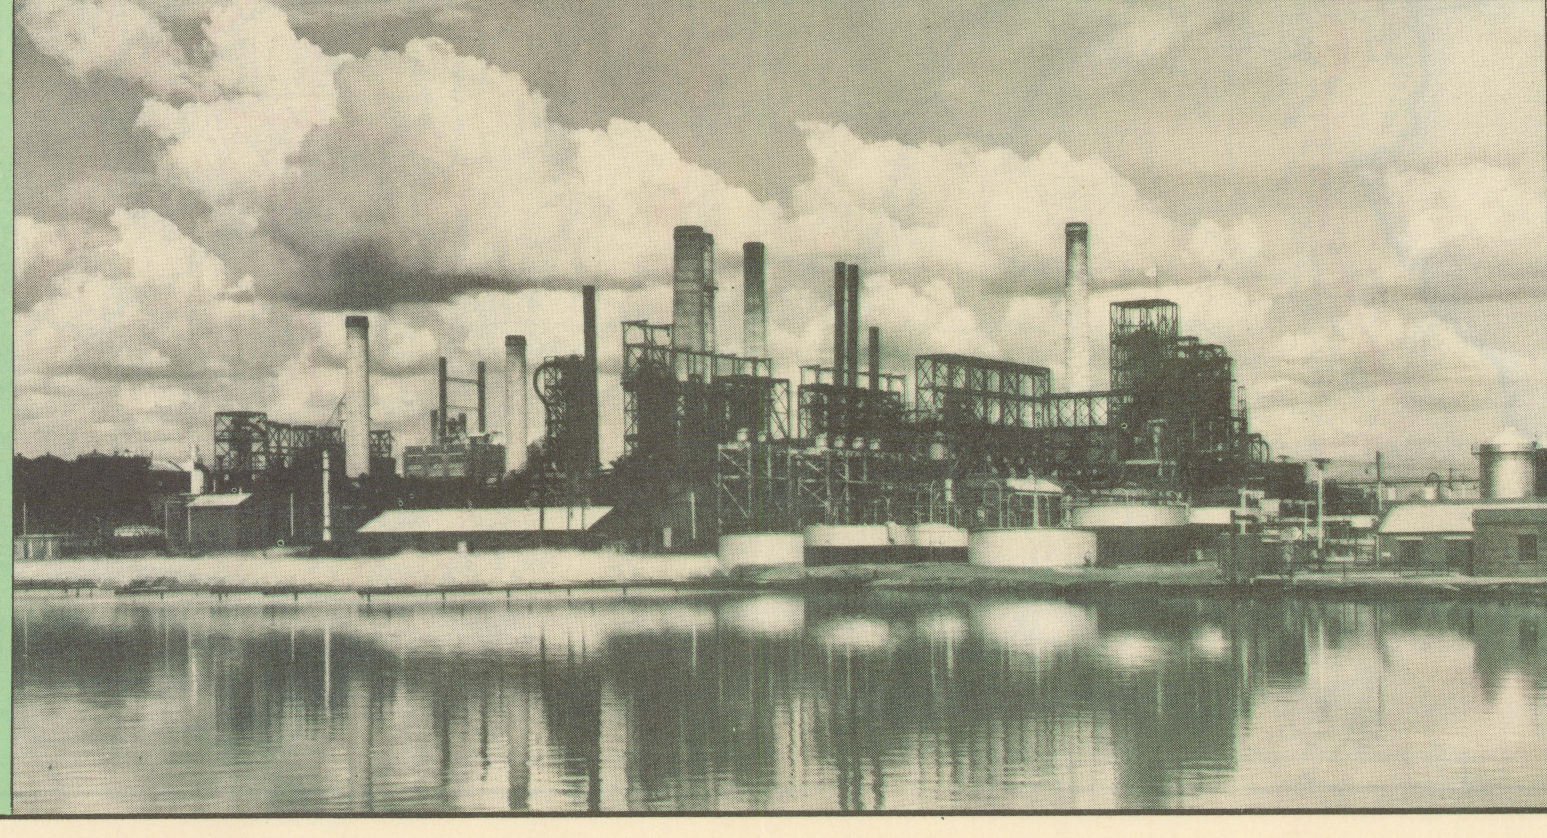

Safety—overpass carrying U.S. 62 and 75 over intersecting railroads near Okmulgee

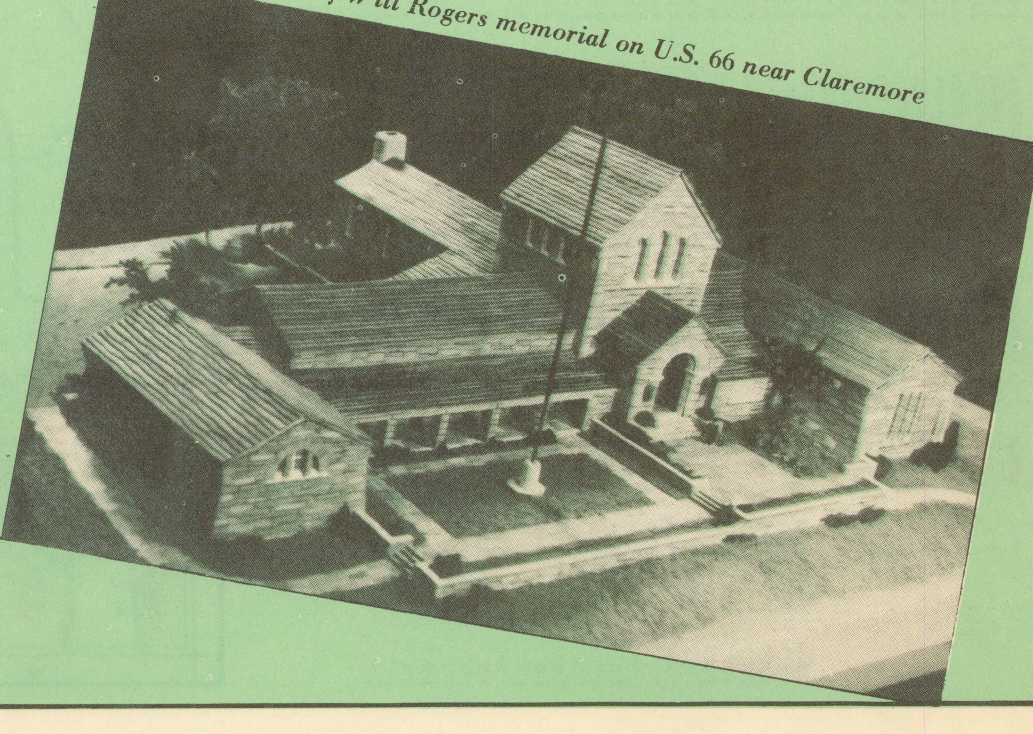

A finny welcome to anglers

Oklahoma petroleum converted into gasoline and lubricating oils in this refinery powers autos throughout the middlewest

Prize-winning shoots spell new income for farmers.

Replica of Will Rogers memorial on U.S. 66 near Claremore